PASTOR STAYING AT SOUTHRIDGE CHURCH Recently Pastor Tim was asked by our national church body (WELS) to consider starting a new church plant in Kalispell, MT. This week, he has shared his decision with them to decline this request/call and continue his ministry in the Tri-Cities. Thank you for your advice and prayers. Please continue to keep this new mission in your prayers as they continue their search for a pastor to lead this effort.

IN THE EVENT OF WORSHIP CANCELLATION DUE TO WEATHER You can expect to see any snow cancellations emailed to those on our email list, texted to those on our text list, and posted on the top of our website as soon as that decision is made. If you do not see any such announcement shared prior to 7 AM on a Sunday, you can safely assume that worship will be held in person.

ANNUAL CHURCH MEETING Our annual church meeting, including the election of church officers, will take place on Sunday, February 11 at 9a in place of Family Bible Study. Everyone is invited to attend.

NEW MEMBER RECEPTION During worship on February 11, we will publicly welcome some new members who have joined our congregation over the past year.

ASH WEDNESDAY MEAL & WORSHIP The season of Lent will begin on Ash Wednesday (February 14) with a special dinner (5:45p) and worship (6:30p). Donations of soup, salad or dessert are needed – there’s a sign-up sheet in the entryway for that purpose. Our observation of Lent will continue the Sundays in Lent leading up to Easter (March 31). The overall theme for our worship and messages in Lent is “God on Trial.” This series focuses on when God was literally put on trial in the person of Christ. Each week, believers find a model and motivation for how to live as God’s people in Jesus. There will also be a special worship opportunity on Good Friday (March 29). Details will be shared mid-March.
